

Domino Applications Draining your Resources? We've got you covered

At Portal Partnership we understand the the importance of your Domino Applications and the maintenance they demand from your IT staff. With you in mind we have pioneering technology that takes the challenges out of your application support, allowing your valuable staff to focus on your future application projects.

Maintaining your Domino applications, with best practices and latest standards, can be time consuming and within our challenging environment we appreciate the value of having the resource free from mundane maintenance to focusing their efforts on new projects and more valuable initiatives.

Whether you have...

- Migrated your mail away from Domino
- A demand for new applications/projects
- Domino applications in need of attention

...We have over 40 dedicated IBM applications and support staff accessing our extensive technology, developed and constantly being updated, to meet and simplify all our customers applications. Our affordable, tailor made packages make us a long lasting choice for our customers and we'd like to share some ideas with you...
